According to www.disabilityisnatural.com, 1 in 5 people will be affected by a disability.

Something Special Magazine is a magazine for parents, friends of parents, and families of parents raising children with special needs.

Who reads us? People from ages 12-80 read our magazine. MORE people than our target audience listed above read our magazine. Grandparents that DO NOT have a grandchild with special needs read our publication. Parents- of all ages- read our publication. Kids- teens- read us. We EDUCATE those not affected by special needs, and inform those that are.

We are located in over 100 locations throughout Georgia and South Carolina, and we are free. Our Distribution Page is on our website and is also located in our media kit. We are located on the web-FREE- at www.somethingspecialmagazine.com.

We print 5,000 copies of the magazine each quarter. We are available INFINITELY on the web and we even archive our issues for your convenience.

How can we serve YOUR business? We can display your advertisement in a professional manner. You will be known “as a business with heart- a supporter of families with special needs children”, as your ad pays for the production of inspiring words and information so vital to this group.

We reach an infinite number of people through the web via our website, FACEBOOK. We currently have almost 1,000 fans on FACEBOOK and active followers daily.

ARE YOU...SOMETHING SPECIAL?

Let us help you grow your business and reach out to those that need information and inspiration.
